Crossbar.io Entity Contributor Assignment Agreement

Thank you for your interest in contributing to the Crossbar.io open source project, which is maintained by Tavendo GmbH ("We" or "Us").

This contributor agreement ("Agreement") documents the rights granted by contributors to Us. To make this document effective, please sign it and send it to Us by email, following the instructions on the last page of this document. This is a legally binding document, so please read it carefully before agreeing to it. If you contribute to any other software projects maintained by Us, and there is no separate agreement executed between You and Us regarding your contributions, then this Agreement covers those contributions as well.

1. Definitions

"You" means any Legal Entity on behalf of whom a Contribution has been received by Us. "Legal Entity" means an entity which is not a natural person. "Affiliates" means other Legal Entities that control, are controlled by, or under common control with that Legal Entity. For the purposes of this definition, "control" means (i) the power, direct or indirect, to cause the direction or management of such Legal Entity, whether by contract or otherwise, (ii) ownership of fifty percent (50%) or more of the outstanding shares or securities which vote to elect the management or other persons who direct such Legal Entity or (iii) beneficial ownership of such entity.

"Contribution" means any work of authorship that is Submitted by You to Us in which You own or assert ownership of the Copyright. If You do not own the Copyright in the entire work of authorship, please follow the instructions at http://crossbar.io/caa.

"Copyright" means all rights protecting works of authorship owned or controlled by You, including copyright, moral and neighboring rights, as appropriate, for the full term of their existence including any extensions by You.

"Material" means the work of authorship which is made available by Us to third parties. When this Agreement covers more than one software project, the Material means the work of authorship to which the Contribution was Submitted. After You Submit the Contribution, it may be included in the Material.

"Submit" means any form of electronic, verbal, or written communication sent to Us or our representatives, including but not limited to electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by, or on behalf of, Us for the purpose of discussing and improving the Material, but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by You as "Not a Contribution."

"Submission Date" means the date on which You Submit a Contribution to Us.

"Effective Date" means the date You execute this Agreement or the date You first Submit a Contribution to Us, whichever is earlier.

"Media" means any portion of a Contribution which is not software.

2. Grant of Rights

2.1 Copyright Assignment

- (a) At the time the Contribution is Submitted, You assign to Us all right, title, and interest worldwide in all Copyright covering the Contribution; provided that this transfer is conditioned upon compliance with Section 2.3.
- (b) To the extent that any of the rights in Section 2.1(a) cannot be assigned by You to Us, You grant to Us a perpetual, worldwide, exclusive, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable license under such non-assigned rights, with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees, to practice such non-assigned rights, including, but not limited to, the right to reproduce, modify, display, perform and distribute the Contribution; provided that this license is conditioned upon compliance with Section 2.3.
- (c) To the extent that any of the rights in Section 2.1(a) can neither be assigned nor licensed by You to Us, You irrevocably waive and agree never to assert such rights against Us, any of our successors in interest, or any of our licensees, either direct or indirect; provided that this agreement not to assert is conditioned upon compliance with Section 2.3.
- (d) Upon such transfer of rights to Us, to the maximum extent possible, We immediately grant to You a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable license under such rights covering the Contribution, with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees, to reproduce, modify, display, perform, and distribute the Contribution. The intention of the parties is that this license will be as broad as possible and to provide You with rights as similar as possible to the owner of the rights that You transferred. This license back is limited to the Contribution and does not provide any rights to the Material.

2.2 Patent License

For patent claims including, without limitation, method, process, and apparatus claims which You own, control or have the right to grant, now or in the future, You grant to Us a perpetual, worldwide, non-exclusive, transferable, royalty-free, irrevocable patent license, with the right to sublicense these rights to multiple tiers of sublicensees, to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import and otherwise transfer the Contribution and the Contribution in combination with the Material (and portions of such combination). This license is granted only to the extent that the exercise of the licensed rights infringes such patent claims; and provided that this license is conditioned upon compliance with Section 2.3.

2.3 Outbound License

Based on the grant of rights in Sections 2.1 and 2.2, if We include Your Contribution in a Material, We may license the Contribution under any license, including copyleft, permissive, commercial, or proprietary licenses. As a condition on the exercise of this right, We agree to also license the Contribution under the terms of the license or licenses which We are using for the Material on the Submission Date.

The above applies similarly to Media.

2.4 Moral Rights.

If moral rights apply to the Contribution, to the maximum extent permitted by law, You waive and agree not to assert such moral rights against Us or our successors in interest, or any of our licensees, either direct or indirect.

2.5 Our Rights.

You acknowledge that We are not obligated to use Your Contribution as part of the Material and may decide to include any Contribution We consider appropriate.

2.6 Reservation of Rights.

Any rights not expressly licensed under this section are expressly reserved by You.

3. Agreement

You confirm that:

- (a) You have the legal authority to enter into this Agreement.
- (b) You or Your Affiliates own the Copyright and patent claims covering the Contribution which are required to grant the rights under Section 2, or have exclusive license rights which allow you to grant Us such rights.
- (c) The grant of rights under Section 2 does not violate any grant of rights which You or Your Affiliates have made to third parties.
- (d) You have followed the instructions in http://crossbar.io/caa, if You do not own the Copyright in the entire work of authorship Submitted, or do not hold exclusive license rights to the work.

4. Disclaimer

EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESS WARRANTIES IN SECTION 3, THE CONTRIBUTION IS PROVIDED "AS IS". MORE PARTICULARLY, ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED BY YOU TO US. TO THE EXTENT THAT ANY SUCH WARRANTIES CANNOT BE DISCLAIMED, SUCH WARRANTY IS LIMITED IN DURATION TO THE MINIMUM PERIOD PERMITTED BY LAW.

5. Consequential Damage Waiver

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT WILL YOU BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OF PROFITS, LOSS OF ANTICIPATED SAVINGS, LOSS OF DATA, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL AND EXEMPLARY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT REGARDLESS OF THE LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY (CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) UPON WHICH THE CLAIM IS BASED.

6. Miscellaneous

- 6.1 This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the United States of America excluding its conflicts of law provisions. Under certain circumstances, the governing law in this section might be superseded by the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods ("UN Convention") and the parties intend to avoid the application of the UN Convention to this Agreement and, thus, exclude the application of the UN Convention in its entirety to this Agreement.
- 6.2 This Agreement sets out the entire agreement between You and Us for Your Contributions to Us and overrides all other agreements or understandings.
- 6.3 If You or We assign the rights or obligations received through this Agreement to a third party, as a condition of the assignment, that third party must agree in writing to abide by all the rights and obligations in the Agreement.
- 6.4 The failure of either party to require performance by the other party of any provision of this Agreement in one situation shall not affect the right of a party to require such performance at any time in the future. A waiver of performance under a provision in one situation shall not be considered a waiver of the performance of the provision in the future or a waiver of the provision in its entirety.
- 6.5 If any provision of this Agreement is found void and unenforceable, such provision will be replaced to the extent possible with a provision that comes closest to the meaning of the original provision and which is enforceable. The terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement shall apply notwithstanding any failure of essential purpose of this Agreement or any limited remedy to the maximum extent possible under law.

What to do with this document:

- Fill in the required information that identifies you and sign the CAA.
- Scan the signed document or take a good quality photo (the usual smartphone camera quality should be enough).
- Email the scan to service@tavendo.de with the subject line "Crossbar.io project contributor assignment agreement"

You only need to do this once – all future contributions are covered.

What does this agreement mean?

The basics are:

- We get full rights to your contribution.
- We assign you back as many rights as possible.
 This means that you retain the possibility to use your contribution outside of the project.
- If we add your contribution to the project, we agree to distribute it under the license which applied at the time you submitted your contribution (i.e. AGPL 3.0 at the time of writing).

This document closely follows a template established by the Harmony project.

Contributor agreements are required by almost all open source projects which are non-trivial in scope.

Why do we need this agreement?

Without this agreement, you issue a license to your code to anybody who uses the project as is, i.e. under the current license. This means that the legal relationship which is established is between you and users of the project – but not with us as the project maintainers.

This brings two problems with it:

In case of license violations by others, there is no central copyright holder to sue. You, or any user who has contributed, may do so, but it complicates things, and who can sue depends very much on the nature of the violation. For example, if somebody took part of the code and integrated it into a project with a different license, only the authors who contributed to that part could sue.

With the assignment, we can sue on behalf of the project.

 License changes would in the majority of cases require that all contributors to the project, across the entire project history, give their explicit, written consent to the change. This makes license changes pretty much impossible. If you're interested, the case of relicensing VLC from the GPL to the LGPL is a good case study.

(http://lwn.net/Articles/525718/)

The license agreement also gives us the right to license the code commercially. This dual-licensing model was e.g. used by MySQL.

This gives us is the possibility to benefit financially from the project which we started and maintain

It does not take away any rights of open-source users of the project.

The code is and remains available under the open source license applicable at the time of contribution. This open source license (the AGPL v3 at the time of writing) is not modified or limited in any way by the possibility of parallel licensing under a different license.

So the dual license does not affect you as an open source user – but without the possibility for dual licensing, we would not have released Crossbar.io as open source.
